Domaine Jaeger-Defaix Rully 1er Cru Blanc "Rabourcé" NV

WINE DESCRIPTION

The appellation Rabourcé is located just on top of Cloux on the most sloping part of hillside. Here, the soils are mostly composed of white clay. The strong reflection favors the maturation process and this plot is always the first to be ripe.

The wine is fermented and aged in oak barrels during 18 months. Then the wine is bottled after a light filtration.

TASTING NOTES

The Rabourcé is characterized by its richness on the mouth and its strength that give a great length.
