

¡buenas!

PRODUCER PROFILE

Estate owned by: Familia Martínez
Bujanda

Winemaker: Lauren Rosillo

Estate founded: 1955

Winery production: 4,000,000,000 Bottles

Region: Castilla-La Mancha

Country: Spain

Buenas Viura 2017

WINE DESCRIPTION

In Spain, the casual greeting of 'buenas' signifies the start to an enjoyable gathering among friends and family. This Tempranillo is crafted in partnership with a highly acclaimed, family-owned winery that has been producing wine for over 100 years. Sourced entirely from estate-grown fruit, ¡buenas! Viura captures the allure of the Spanish sun in every bottle.

TASTING NOTES

¡buenas! Viura offers alluring notes of ripe, red grapefruit that intermingle with flavors of pear and wild flower on the palate. This refreshing white has invigorating acidity with a crisp, clean finish.

FOOD PAIRING

Pairs well with appetizers, seafood, fish, and rice dishes.

VINEYARD & PRODUCTION INFO

Vineyard name:	Multiple in Rioja and La Mancha
Vineyard size:	225 acres
Soil composition:	Calcareous
Training method:	free system and trelling system
Elevation:	2,640 feet
Vines/acre:	4,167
Yield/acre:	2.4 tons
Exposure:	Eastern / Western
Harvest time:	September

WINEMAKING & AGING

Varietal composition:	100% Viura
Fermentation container:	Stainless steel tanks
Length of alcoholic fermentation:	13 days
Fermentation temperature:	59 °F

ANALYTICAL DATA

Alcohol:	11.5 %
Acidity:	5.2 g/L

